13.3 Where the NZOC or Chef de Mission is investigating whether a default has occurred and where on the immediate evidence available, there is, in their reasonable opinion, a strong prima facie case of a default which is on its face sufficiently serious that it could lead to one or more of the sanctions specified in clause 13.4, the NZOC and/or Chef de Mission may suspend you while it/they complete an investigation and reaches a determination. During the period of suspension, the parties shall remain bound by this Agreement and you shall remain a member of the Team excepting that you shall be unable to participate in the Games or otherwise represent the Team in any capacity until the suspension is ended and/or a determination is made. The NZOC acknowledges that suspension is a serious step that could have significant impact on your career and as such, it will take into account all relevant considerations, including the impact on you when determining the appropriateness of suspension. The NZOC will also use all reasonable endeavours to complete any investigation promptly.

13.4 Where it is determined that a default has occurred, the NZOC or Chef de Mission may take one or more of the following steps:

- (a) provide counselling and/or education to you to ensure the default is not repeated;
- (b) formally warn you that a repetition of the default (or other unacceptable behaviour) will result in a more severe sanction under this clause;
- (c) if the default occurs prior to you validating your accreditation at the Games, withdraw your appointment to the Team;
- (d) terminate this Agreement by giving you written notice to that effect;
- (e) either suspend your membership of the Team temporarily or terminate your membership of the Team permanently;
- (f) require you to leave the Games venues (which may include the Games Village);
- (g) cancel and impound your Games accreditation card to prevent you from accessing the Games venues, including the Games Village;
- (h) require you to return to your usual place of residence, as soon as practicable, at the expense of the NZOC;
- (i) require you to pay, by way of compensation or reparation, the costs for any damage to property or persons caused by you;
- (j) where the NZOC considers it appropriate, upon presentation of information from the Chef de Mission and following due process (including the right for you to have support/representation present), it may prevent you from being eligible for consideration for appointment to these Games or for future NZOC teams to Olympic Winter Games, Winter Youth Olympic Games and/or other games;

- (k) where the NZOC considers it appropriate to do so, and in accordance with the NZOC Nomination and Selection Regulation, refer the matter giving rise to the default to your National Federation to be dealt with in accordance with applicable rules of the National Federation; and/or
- (l) impose such other sanctions on you as are considered fair and reasonable in the circumstances.
