

Olympic Education Resources

There are lots of fun and informative Olympic education resources free to use, curriculum-linked and written by teachers for teachers.

Looking for some fun games and physical activities? Go to the Olympic Values tab where these are themed under the Olympic Values of friendship, respect, and excellence. These games and activities are inspired by Olympic sports and are designed to get students active, thinking, participating while challenging them to be the best they can be.

Read about New Zealand's Olympic heroes. 20 of our greatest Olympians inspire with their stories, either in full or abridged form. Or watch some of these champions in action or the highlights from past Games.

Learn about the current New Zealand Team and have fun with the interactive resources on specific New Zealand athletes such as Lisa Carrington. Have a go at the latest competitions and win New Zealand Team merchandise.

Research the sports, athletes, and traditions of the Ancient Olympics that ran for 1,000 years at Olympia in Greece. Or find out about the modern Olympics founded by Baron Pierre de Coubertin in 1896.
